The Lenox, Mass. property will also add the 1894 Fireside and Bistro Bar, named after the year the mansion was finalized. Wyndhurst Club, a golf and fitness membership, will not make any changes to its branding, operations, or membership with Wyndhurst Manor's transition to Miraval.

Miraval Berkshire Resort & Spa in Lenox, Mass. is planning to add Wyndhurst Mansion, three carriage houses and a fine-dining restaurant on April 1, MassLive.com reported. The 10 guest room mansion, inspired by the Berkshire's Gilded Age, includes a glass-walled sunroom, private boardroom, grand ballroom and the Great Lawn used for special events. The adjacent carriage houses will be adding 10 rooms and suites to Miraval.

Miraval will also add the 1894 Fireside and Bistro Bar, named after the year the Wyndhurst Mansion was finalized, MassLive.com reported. According to Miraval, the new restaurant will offer "a culinary experience and secondary dining experience for Miraval Berkshire guests featuring a formal dining room and bar with views of the rolling Berkshire Hills, complementing the resort's existing dining outlets at Harvest Moon Restaurant and The Roost."

Wyndhurst Club, a golf and fitness membership, will not make any changes to its branding, operations, or membership with Wyndhurst Manor's transition to Miraval, MassLive.com reported. The club features multiple activities including golf, tennis, a fitness center, the Wyndhurst indoor and outdoor pool, Sloane's Tavern, and access to Miraval Berkshires Resort & Spa via day and evening packages.

Miraval Berkshires stands at 29,000 sq. ft. and is the largest spa of the three Miraval properties, MassLive.com reported. The other two are located in Tucson, Ariz. and Austin, Texas.
